

Please do not interfere with the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law as it stands. Once I get home from work, I can now relax and feel confident that I won't be disturbed by telemarketers by the dozens. I can now trust that when the phone rings, it is for personal reasons, not someone trying to do business. I take care of business during the day, not at home at night.